

Service Samples

Content Strategy

Need help creating content and refreshing your message? After getting to know you and your business, I can offer some tips, suggestions and inspiration.

Social Media Management

This service is designed to increase your business's social media presence and maintain closer interaction with followers. I will help manage and create scheduled content for all social media outlets.

Website Copywriting

Copywriting services aim to enhance what you've already started through updated about me, description of products, maybe a guest blog post or anything else to would update your website voice.

Website Design

Start from scratch or redesign an existing website for a more professional and pleasing look using a custom Squarespace template.

Each client has a unique identity and brand voice, so please note these are samples of services done.
Each client's needs will be evaluated and an estimate will be given accordingly.
